

Renewable energy expo and community tour

Learn about new renewable energy technologies in Addington Highlands and North Frontenac

- Talk to experts and suppliers of wood pellet equipment, solar panels and microhydro
- Visit local water dam and learn what it takes to have a good site to make electricity
- Hear about the wood pellet heating system at the North Addington Education Centre

Free

Barrie Hall, Cloyne 1 pm to 4:30 pm Saturday June 18

Everyone welcome, light refreshments served, children's activities

Schedule

1:00PM Welcome a few words from the organizers

1:15 –1: 45 PM Wood pellets replace heating oil Presentation on NAEC wood pellet boiler installation by Joe Hendry, Energy / Environmental Technologist, Limestone District School Board

1:45 – 2:30PM refreshments and displays from local renewable energy suppliers

2:30 to 3:30 PM What makes a good site for micro hydro? Tour of Mazinaw Lake Dam guided by Fred Perry, Councilor North Frontenac Township & Paul Lehman, General Manager, Mississippi Valley Conservation Authority

3:30 – 4:15PM refreshments and displays from local renewable energy suppliers

4:30 PM Concluding Remarks

Supported by:

County of Frontenac Green Energy Task Force

Addington Highlands Economic Advisors for Development (AHEAD)

Public Attitudes toward New Renewable Energy Technologies Project, University of Ottawa

For more information call Stewart at 613 222 8084