

Robert G. White

FORENSIC PHOTOGRAPHER

- I started my professional photographic career on 1969 as a photographer with the Toronto Telegram
- Throughout the seventies and into the mid eighties I taught photography in the continuing education of York county Board of Education
- In 1972 I was invited to join I started my professional photographic career on 1969 as a photographer with the Toronto Telegram
- Throughout the seventies and into the mid eighties I taught photography in the continuing education of York county Board of Education
- In 1972 I was invited to join York Regional Police Force where I began my Forensic Photography career.
- In 1976 I went into Law where as a Para-legal in private practice I continued my Forensic Photography career.
- I continue to this day on a Casual basis to work as a Forensic Photographer as well as a general photographer